12:15 p.m. Fire Safety in Bangladesh: Recent Agreement between Phillips-Van Heusen and Labor Rights Advocates

There is an ongoing worker safety crisis in Bangladesh, with hundreds of garment workers killed in recent years in preventable factory fires. The WRC, along with worker advocates in Bangladesh and internationally, has reached an agreement with Phillips-Van Heusen to implement a comprehensive fire safety program in the country's garment sector. The discussion will focus on the details of the agreement, next steps for implementation and potential participation by university licensees.

Presentation by Scott Nova; Guest Presentation by Marcela Manubens, Senior Vice President, Phillips-Van Heusen (by phone)

Labor Rights Crisis in Bangladesh

Guest Speaker: Kalpona Akter, Bangladeshi Labor Rights Advocate

Ms. Akter will discuss the labor rights environment for garment workers in Bangladesh and efforts to improve conditions. She will also discuss the Bangladesh government's ongoing campaign of repression against her and her colleagues in retaliation for their efforts to achieve greater respect for workplace rights, including the murder of Aminul Islam.

2:45 p.m.

WRC Model Code of Conduct

A discussion of possible enhancements to the WRC's Model Code of Conduct. The WRC's Model Code is a set of non-binding recommendations on code language for affiliate universities. We will discuss possible changes to the code based on input from a special committee of the WRC's Board of Directors.

Presentation by Ben Hensler
